Nominator Name, Position, and Contact Information (Phone, email):

The MORS Organizational Manual (MOM) directs that nominees for Fellows of the Society must have demonstrated long standing, significant, and dedicated volunteer service to the Military Operations Research Society. Expertise in military operations research or short-term contribution to the Society and its activities is not sufficient. To support this nomination, please explain the nominee's significant contributions in the areas listed below. (Please use continuation page, if necessary.)

a. MORS Leadership (e.g. Elective offices (which ones and when), notable leadership contributions to the Society, or Chair for MORS committees, symposia, mini-symposia, workshops or special meetings).
b. MORS Programs (e.g. work with Symposia or special meetings; editor or long-term contributor to PHALANX or MORS Journal; MORS meeting proceedings editor; author or editor of monograph; Working or Composite Group co-chair, chair or advisor; or coordinator of special or general sessions, composite or working groups, or tutorials)

c. MORS Administration (e.g. strengthening or adding to Sponsors, serviced as a sponsor representative, improved MORS office functions, assisting with meeting site coordination)

d. MORS Participation and other contributions (e.g. Symposium or special meeting keynote speaker; panel leader or speaker; Wanner, Thomas, Walker, Journal Award, Rist or Barchi Prize recipient; promotion of MORS to non-member analysts; active promoter and encourager of promising analysts to expand their participation in MORS, its activities and board candidacy)

e. Information not addressed above which the Board of Directors should consider in voting on this nominee.

f. Please describe what you see as the most significant service provided to MORS by this nominee.
